

Music Gateway attracts Silva Screen Investment

Music Gateway welcomes the Silva Screen Group as an investor in its innovative music platform. The collaboration sees Reynold D'Silva, Founder of Silva Screen join the Board of Directors who together with Jon Skinner and his dedicated team will further expand the features Music Gateway brings to the music sector.

"We are happy to be able to participate in Music Gateway and to share our experience and expertise accumulated over the last 30 years in the music business. We recognised the potential in Music Gateway and were keen to join the company in their future ventures and development"

Reynold D'Silva / Managing Director / Silva Screen Music Group

The two companies share a common passion and ethos of international business expansion and consistent improvement with the goal of creating the best platform possible. Music Gateway's recent successes continue to impress across the industry with their continued innovation and progress.

Music Gateway is an ingenious, highly adaptable and versatile top music business platform. The Private Network facility offered is an ultimate network and project management tool like no other for publishers, record companies, production libraries, music, ad agencies, and music supervisors.

Silva Screen Group Ltd is a London head quartered company whose interests span recorded music, Silva Screen Records / So Recordings, Music Publishing, boutique Music Conference, Artist Development and Marketing, Royalty Accounting and Property.

Find out more about Music Gateway's recent activities, by visiting www.musicgateway.net or contact them for more information.

For all business enquires please contact:

Jon Skinner - CEO /Founder: jon.skinner@musicgateway.net

Clare Knight - Business Development Manager: clare.knight@musicgateway.net

